Federal Policy Committee

FAC maintains and facilitates a Federal Policy Committee to address similar policy issues encountered at the state level but that are initiated at the federal level.

Caucuses

FAC maintains and facilitates ongoing caucus meetings during the policy development and legislative process. Current caucus organizations are designed to allow similar and like-sized counties to gather, discuss, and identify common issues that may be unique to certain counties.

Rural Caucus

The rural caucus provides an opportunity for counties with a population of 125,000 or under to address issues by which they are similarly affected.

Urban Caucus

The urban caucus provides an opportunity for counties with a population of 125,000 or over to address issues by which they are similarly affected.

Task Forces or Select Committees

The Board and/or the Executive Committee may approve additional select committees to address key issues of pressing concern to counties.

Constitutional Revision Commission Task Force (CRC Task Force)

The CRC Task Force was created to advise staff and the membership with regards to strategy in addressing issues that arise out of the constitutional revision process that occurs once every twenty years.
