Disaster Recovery Process

- Recovery is a Marathon not a Sprint
- FEMA Funds Phase is Just the Beginning
- Information and Education Critical for County Staff and Citizens
- Planning for Long-Term Recovery Funds Should Begin with FEMA Process
- Community Size does not always Drive Need for Technical Assistance
- Understanding Florida Local Governments

FEMA and other Recovery Funds

- Maximizing FEMA Requests for Eligible Costs Critical to Long-Term Funding
- FEMA Damage Assessments Significantly Impact Long-Term Funding Allocations at the Federal and State Level
- FEMA and all other recovery funds received will be considered Duplication of Benefits and may Reduce Long-term Recovery Funds for Specific Projects
- FEMA and all other Recovery Funds Received Must be Documented.
- Documentation, Documentation, Documentation
